Effective fulfillment of this ministry demands a high degree of personal commitment. Sponsors should be chosen on the basis of the quality of their Christian lives. In Church teaching, the relationship between sponsor and the candidate is considered sacramental and of lasting character and guidance for support of the newly confirmed.
  2. Prior to Confirmation, a sponsor are expected to spend time, correspond with the candidate or converse with the candidate by telephone to help them accept a more mature role in the life and mission of the Church.
  3. Sponsors should be available to commit personal time to the candidate and be willing to provide example, support and guidance following the Sacrament of Confirmation.
  4. Sponsors are asked to pray daily for their candidates
  5. Sponsors are to attend the rehearsal for the Rite of Confirmation with the candidate.
